Celebrating Over 100 Years at Illinois

A Letter from the President...

Greetings Everyone!

Welcome to another academic year with The Illinois Club! I am happy to be your new President and will do everything I can to make sure our club events run smoothly. Our first event will be the Expo, our traditional meet-and-greet with Interest Group sign-up at no cost to members. It will be on Monday, September 8, from 4 to 6 pm, at the Hilton Garden Inn (the same place we were last year). The second event, our Holiday Party, will be at the President's House on Thursday, December 11, 4-6 pm. I thank our meeting manager, Anne Anderson, for setting up these events for us.

We are still without a Vice President, which means we also have no President lined up for next year. Please consider taking on this important job to assure continuity and keep our club running. Neither job is difficult because we have such an outstanding Board working behind the scenes. If you are interested in the position, contact me at president@theillinoisclub.org. I would be happy to describe the positions to you either by email or by telephone.

Sincerely,

Sarah Wisseman

president@theillinoisclub.org

Are you new to the Illinois Club? We have a program within our organization whose goal is to help you feel welcome, whether you are new to both the Club and the Champaign-Urbana community and the University of Illinois, or just new to the Club. We organize several events each semester, in addition to working with current members to mentor all new Club members who wish to participate. This might involve a brief call or email every now and then, asking how you're doing, or going together to a general meeting or interest group session that you will both attend. We want to help everyone feel more connected to the overall organization. Please contact us throughout the year.

Kathy (and Steve) Marshak & Pat (and Bob) Davis, Newcomer Chairs

Here is a preview of activities for the coming year. Please always let us know whether you are planning to join us so we can plan properly. RSVP to newcomers@theillinoisclub.org to let us know of your interest.

Architectural Tour of Springfield Thursday, October 9

Featuring the Dana Thomas House designed by Frank Lloyd Wright

Architectural Tour of Springfield

Join us for an architectural tour of historical buildings and homes in the old capital city of Springfield. Although not as old as the state of Illinois, Springfield was founded soon after Illinois joined the Union in 1818 and quickly became a center of government, first as the seat of Sangamon County in 1821 and then as the state capital in 1837. Many of the city's historical buildings have been restored and are open to the public for tours. We will have an opportunity to explore the grounds and interiors of these buildings and to learn more about their history with the help of local guides.

Cost/person: $53.00 for members; $58 for non-members (limit of 50 people). Price includes bus transportation, lunch, all entry fees and suggested donations, taxes, and tips for bus driver, restaurant staff, and tour guides.

Accessibility: A wheelchair-accessible bus is available on this date. Buildings are accessible but may require advance notice to make arrangements for special needs. Please contact Julia or Kathy if you require any assistance or accommodations for your tour.

For more information: Contact tour directors Kathy Valdes at 217-590-0311 or Julia Schmidt at 217-714-1238 or tours@theillinoisclub.org.

Make checks payable to: The Illinois Club
Signup deadline is Friday, September 26, 2014

Tour Itinerary, October 9

Morning: The bus departs from County-Market on Mattis in Champaign at 7:30 am. We will begin our tour in what is actually one the newest of the buildings, the Old State Capital. The current building is a 1960's reconstruction of the fifth capital building that originally stood from 1839 to 1876. The Greek-Revival style building is a National Historic Landmark and on the National Register of Historic Places. Our second stop is the red brick Executive Mansion built in the Italianate style. Since 1855, the mansion has been home to Illinois governors beginning with Governor Joel A. Matteson and his family. The mansion was fully restored in 1971. The morning will conclude with a visit to the sixth and current state capital. The building of the French Renaissance style capital began in 1869 and was completed in 1889. Crowned with a silvery zinc dome, it is one of the tallest state capital buildings of its type in the nation and to this day a city statute does not allow any buildings to be built higher than the Illinois State Capital.

Lunch: Lunch will be at the historic Maldaner's Restaurant, one of the oldest restaurants on the Historic Route 66 and the oldest continually operating restaurant in Springfield. The restaurant opened in 1884 and has been in its current location since 1894. We will be treated to a buffet with several lunch options.

Afternoon: Our final stop on the tour will be the Dana-Thomas House designed by Frank Lloyd Wright in 1902 for Susan Lawrence Dana. The prairie style house was acquired by the Illinois State Historic Preservation Agency and underwent a major restoration. This well-preserved home contains one of the largest collections of original Wright art glass and furniture. We will return at about 5 pm

Spring Luncheon 2014

33 TIC members enjoyed a delicious lunch at the Illini Union for our annual spring luncheon in May. The scheduled speaker, Dr. Wayne Pitard, Director of the Spurlock Museum, was planning to be our featured speaker, but he was called away on a family emergency. Our own Dr. Sarah Wisseman graciously stepped in and gave us a very interesting talk about mummies: background information on mummification, mummies around the world, and recent revelations about our own mummy on the U of I campus. Sarah was also serving at her first meeting in her new role: 2014-15 President of The Illinois Club. Thank you, Sarah!

Illinois New Faculty Orientation Resource Fair 2014

This August TIC participated in the Illinois New Faculty Orientation (INFO) Resource Fair at the I Hotel and Conference Center. Sarah Wisseman, Ann Campbell, and Susan Haney had 45 minutes to meet and greet as many new faculty and staff as they could. They made many new contacts (at least 60) as well as generated some keen interest in the Fall Expo, Newcomers, Springfield tour, and various interest groups. We look forward to seeing some new faces at the Expo and Newcomers as a result! Be sure to welcome them.
