

The Illinois Club

Want to have some fun? Ready to make some great new friendships? Then The Illinois Club is the social organization for you! We benefit from our affiliation with the University of Illinois, but membership is open to all in the community who are interested in supporting the University and the purposes and activities of our Club.

Interest Groups

Our heart and soul are the diverse Interest Groups we support, including:

- ◀ Antiques & Collectibles
- ◀ Cosmopolitan ▶ Hiking
- ◀ Krannert Club ▶ Genealogy
- ◀ Wine Lovers ▶ Korean
- ◀ German ▶ French
- ◀ Spanish ▶ Italian
- ◀ Knit 'n' Things ▶ Drive & Dine
- ◀ Campus Lunch ▶ Let's Do Lunch
- ◀ Supper Club ▶ Bridge
- ◀ Cordially Yours ▶ Book Exchange
 - ◀ Afternoon & Evening Literature
 - ◀ Writers Not Anonymous

Newcomers' Group

Whether you are new to the area or just new to the Club, we have an exciting Newcomers' Group with activities, parties, and receptions just for you, in addition to our Special Events.

Special Events

Besides our Interest Groups and our Newcomers' Group, we also offer:

- ◀ Fall & Spring Tours
- ◀ Fall Expo
- ◀ Holiday Party
- ◀ Antiques Appraisal & Tea
- ◀ Scholarship Awards Brunch
- ◀ Spring Luncheon

Scholarships

We have four different award programs which benefit U of I juniors and seniors who volunteer their time in the community, and who show leadership potential upon graduation. The awards are financed through tax-deductible gifts, bequests, and memorials to our endowments held by the University of Illinois Foundation, as well as special scholarship fundraisers. Each year we celebrate these winners at our Scholarship Awards Brunch. For additional details on our awards, please see the back of this page.
