Celebrating Over 100 Years at Illinois

A Letter From the President...

So, it's Autumn again. The leaves are turning and the temperature is dropping. It's 45° as I write this.

Forgive me for not sounding enthusiastic about this inevitable seasonal change. What can I say: I love and live for summer. But there are wonderful things to look forward to that only happen at this time of year: Consider this my formal invitation to join me and our Illinois Club friends on December 10th at this year's Holiday Party (details inside). We look forward to this event every year and hope that you will join us. Even better, guests are welcome. The more, the merrier.

You will find a sign-up sheet for the Holiday Party in this newsletter.

However, to save you the trouble of extracting it and printing it out, we will be sending out a special mailing in about a week that will include the sign-up sheet as well as a supplement to the Club Directory, with contact information for people who've joined us since August. So keep an eye out for that.

You have all been receiving our weekly e-news in a much-improved new format, one that is stable across all platforms, which was not true of the email version. With this issue of the newsletter, The Illinois Club takes another step into Digital World. We hope that you enjoy getting the news in this format. Many thanks to Ann Campbell, Kathy Valdes, and Mike Haney whose knowledge and creativity have done so much in this effort.

Remember that you are always invited to contribute to our newsletter. If you've gone on a special trip that you'd like to tell us about, consider sending a brief report, with photos if you have them, to communications@theillinoisclub.org. If you've got some news to share, good or bad, you're welcome to share it on our Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/The-Illinois-Club-120675798118/>. We enjoy the chance to get to know our members better.

Please contact me if you have any other ideas about how to improve our Club.

Best wishes,
Sandy Camargo,
president@theillinoisclub.org

SPOTLIGHT ON INTEREST GROUPS

Participating in interest groups is a great way to meet people. It is not too late to visit and hopefully join one that appeals to you. Here are some highlights from some of our groups. See the fun you missed. For more information see a description of each group in the August 2015 newsletter. If you misplaced your copy, look on the website www.theillinoisclub.org and click on "INTEREST GROUPS."

CU4Dinner

We are having a fun time and happy to share at restaurants around town. Next gathering is November 14, 2015. RSVP by Nov 11th. All are welcome but you must have your name on the CU4Dinner list for detailed information. cu4dinner@theillinoisclub.org

Walk and Talk

We are a new in-town walking and socializing group. After an hour or so of walking in a local park, we sometimes go for coffee after.

Join us when you can
walktalk@theillinoisclub.org

Women's Sports

The new Women's Sports interest group has met twice so far. We went to a soccer match and saw the Illini beat Maryland in overtime. We were serenaded by the Marching Illini, which made the occasion quite special. Our second event was a volleyball game between the Illini and Penn State. Despite losing the game, the Illini fought hard. We have plans to cheer the Swimming and Diving team on at a meet at the ARC pool in October 30 and to see another volleyball game on November 14. It's a lot of fun to go to these games and cheer the team on with friends.

If you'd like to join us, contact Sandy Camargo at womenssports@theillinoisclub.org

Hiking

We've had two beautiful fall days for hiking so far this year. We continue to hike during the winter – so dress appropriately if you plan to join us.

hiking@theillinoisclub.org

Wine Lovers

We had a great celebration of Halloween a couple of weeks early at the Long's house. Check Facebook for fun photos.

NEWCOMERS

The Newcomers Group — people who have joined within the last three years — were invited to participate in three different music venues over the summer: Strawberry Jam in Meadowbrook Park, U of I Summer Band Concert on the Quad, and Gospel Fest in Hessel Park. Our fall events began in September with a wine and cheese Meet and Greet at the home of Alma Bellafiore. Our October happening was a backstage tour of our wonderful Krannert Center for the Performing Arts led expertly by Linda Lopez. Some stayed for wine and cheese and more chances to converse.

UPCOMING NEWCOMER EVENTS

November 19, 2015, 10:30am-12:30pm

Tour of Common Ground Food Co-op, 300 S Broadway Ave, Urbana, IL (in Lincoln Square)

Do you know what a food co-op is and how it works? Common Ground has been around for nearly 40 years and offers classes, cooking demonstrations, and an art gallery in addition to selling all sorts of grocery items. Come to the store in Lincoln Square in Urbana for a tour and learn about this nationally recognized food co-op and enjoy lunch from their many choices at the deli. We'll also get an update about plans for their new store opening soon in Champaign. We will gather inside Lincoln Square in the hallway near the west entrance to the mall. Look for an email with Common Ground's November newsletter attached, to encourage you to come and see for yourself.

Please RSVP by Monday, Nov. 16 to Pat at pat@bnpdavis.com so we know whom to expect.

LOOKING AHEAD TO 2016

Sunday, January 17, 2016, 5:30-7:30 pm

Potluck Dinner

Linda and Len Lopez have kindly offered their home at 2102 Meadowlark Court, Urbana, for a good old fashioned potluck gathering of Newcomers and Mentors. We hope you will join us for warm conversation and good food on a winter's night. Table settings and beverages will be provided. Because we hope to coordinate the categories of food for the evening, when you respond please let us know what you plan to bring--so be thinking of a couple of your favorite potluck dishes. Please reply by Saturday, January 14th at the latest so Len and Linda can arrange enough seating. Be sure to put this date on your calendars now so you can join us for this special night. Whole families are welcome.

February 18, 2016, 10:00-11:30am

Tour and talk at Eastern Illinois Food Bank

These are the folks who have put the food in food pantry and the soup in soup kitchen for the past 30 years and who bring hope to the one in five people in our area who struggle with hunger each day. Learn about programs such as the School Pantry, Backpacks for Kids, the Senior Grocery Program, and the Foodmobile.

March or April (TBA)

Tour and talk about WILL Illinois Public Media Station

Ever wanted to tour a radio and television station? Then join us for this tour and talk about WILL Illinois Public Media Station and view a live taping of the show "Mid American Gardener" hosted by Diane Noland.

May 18, 2016, 1:00-3:00pm

Japan House on U of I campus (in conjunction with Tours)

Participate in the traditional arts and aesthetics of Japanese culture as we visit Japan House at the University of Illinois campus, experience a tea ceremony, stroll thru the beautiful zen gardens, and watch a flower arranging demonstration known as Ikebana.

Holiday Note Cards

We have 5 beautiful holiday note cards available for those special notes you would like to write to friends and family over this holiday season. You can help support scholarships while simultaneously spreading Judy Ikenberry's art throughout the world. Contact Susan Haney at 217-356-2464 or sales@theillinoisclub.org to get your set of 6 for $15, or single cards for $3. For other cards or giclée prints, go to our website theillinoisclub.org/sales.php for more details.

New Ikenberry Note Card

We feel very fortunate that Judy Ikenberry has shared a new note card with us based upon her painting of a national park in the Netherlands. Entitled Wind Farm, it beautifully depicts the iconic Dutch windmills. Many other note cards based upon Judy's travels to Russia, Scotland, England, France and Italy are also available for sale. If local color is more to your liking, we have those as well. And let's not forget all those holiday cards too... Each set of six cards is $15 and all cards are blank inside. You also have the option of choosing which 6 cards you want in your set. And if you want more in a set, each additional card is $2.50. Individual cards are $3 each. Our note cards are pictured below. To order, contact Susan Haney at sales@theillinoisclub.org or at 217-356-2464.

Many of the note cards are also available as prints in various sizes with prices ranging from $75 to $125, including a new print entitled Red Barn. If you would like to see the prints, several of them are on display and for sale at International Galleries in Lincoln Square. Almost all larger prints can be purchased in smaller versions for $75. These make really great gifts, especially the smaller version of Hallene Gateway, which is framed in orange and blue. It's perfect for a presentation, going-away or graduation gift. After-tax proceeds go to support our scholarships. For additional print and note card details go to: www.theillinoisclub.org/sales.php.

Past Tour to Rantoul

On October 8th, 22 of us spent the day in Rantoul visiting BRG Sports, Generations of Hope, and the Chanute Air Museum. First we visited BRG Sports, a leading designer, developer and marketer of sports equipment and accessories that enhance athletic performance and protection. The tour began with a presentation describing the company's brand portfolio (Bell, Riddell, Giro and Blackburn), which sets the standard for innovation and excellence in football, snow, action and power sports. One interesting example of a recent acquisition is a company that makes bike helmets that really appeal to children. The plan is that children who wear these fun helmets will continue wearing helmets as they age. On the tour, we saw some of the manufacturing and assembly of bike helmets and had an extensive look at their distribution center. Next we visited Generations of Hope, a unique program where families, seniors, and foster children live side by side to form a network of caring intergenerational relationships. They provided lunch for us, which gave us the opportunity to interact with some of the seniors who have come from all over the country as a way remain active and help make a difference in the lives of children. In one of the houses we visited, we saw sewing and quilting rooms where they make a quilt for each child. Our last stop was the Chanute Air Museum. Even though the museum closed the end of October, there still was a lot to see: many exhibits and more than 20 airplanes. A volunteer gave us a tour of one of the cockpits describing what it would have been like working in such a plane. We had a pleasant day with beautiful weather, an opportunity to learn about organizations and businesses a half hour away, and time to connect with other members of The Illinois Club.
