

Japan House and Tea Ceremony– Thursday, May 19, 2016
Co-sponsored with the Newcomers Group

Thursday, May 19 1:30 -3:00 pm - Japan House, 2000 S. Lincoln Ave. in Urbana– Participate in the traditional arts and aesthetics of Japanese culture as we visit the Japan House at the University of Illinois campus, located south of Kirby Avenue on the east side of Lincoln Avenue. At this unique facility we will stroll thru the beautiful Zen gardens and at 2 pm have a tour of the house as well as experience a tea ceremony held in an authentic tearoom. Bring a pair of white socks to wear inside Japan House. There is a minimum of 10 and a maximum of 20 spots available, so do not delay in sending in your reservation.

An $8 reservation fee covers the expense of the tour and tea ceremony. Metered parking is available on the north lot or on Lincoln Avenue.
